STRATHCONA-TWEEDSMUIR SCHOOL
ALUMNI COMMUNITY CITIZENSHIP AWARD
NOMINATION FORM

Do you know an individual who has made a significant volunteer contribution to the STS alumni community? If so, we invite you to complete this form to submit a nomination for the Alumni Community Citizenship Award. The Alumni Community Citizenship Award is given annually in recognition of substantial volunteer contributions or special service by members of the STS Alumni Community, over a period of time. It recognizes those that go above and beyond the call of duty to significantly improve the STS School, the Community, and/or the Alumni Association.

Alumni Community members is defined as: alumni (students that have attended STS), alumni parents (STS parents that no longer have children at STS), and alumni employees (employees that have since retired or moved on from STS).

Please outline the nominee's history of volunteering and engagement with Strathcona-Tweedsmuir School, and where possible, include dates and specific roles.

Please share an anecdote or story about the nominee that you feel best reflects the impact of their service to the STS community.
